Ways to remember your loved one

1. Funeral Collection

Arranging a collection at a funeral or memorial service can be a special way to commemorate a loved one. People sometimes choose to do this in lieu of flowers and your funeral director can help to organise the collection for you.

If you would like to do this, please pass on these details to your funeral director:

Charity name: Brent, Wandsworth & Westminster Mind

Registered charity number: 292708

Address: 23 Monck Street, London, SW1P 2AE

If you need any help with this, please email fundraising@bwwmind.org.uk and we would be happy to liaise with your funeral director.

2. Create a lasting tribute page

With the online tribute charity, MuchLoved, you can create your own tribute page to remember your loved one. A tribute page is a special place where you can share memories, thoughts and stories, light virtual candles, and share photos and videos of your loved one with family and friends.

You can also collect fundraising donations for Brent, Wandsworth & Westminster Mind in their name. It is quick and easy to set up, and you can keep the page open for as long as you wish.

3. Create your own fundraiser or take on a personal challenge

Many people like to remember their loved one and support Brent, Wandsworth & Westminster Mind by organising their own event or taking part in a personal challenge such as a marathon.

If you would like to remember someone this way, please tell us who you are participating in memory of and if you need any support for your event.

4. Make a donation in memory

When you make an online donation, you have the option to share with us who you are donating in memory of.

You can choose to make a one-off donation or set up regular donations in their name.
